

I want to let you know my opposition to the attempt of weakening the Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. I really like the way the law it's now and I don't want any change allowing any company to make unsolicited phone calls to me.